

LABOR VS. CAPITAL.

Pensacola Dramatic Club Makes a Decided Hit.

The Pensacola Dramatic club made a decided hit at the opera house last night in their presentation of Mrs. Beatrice Marean's melodrama, Cherry, or Lysander vs. Capi- tal. And they played to a large, fashionable and well pleased audience.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Mark Goodwin, a carpenter. Ernest Elliott, a blacksmith. Charlie C. Goodman, Uncle Tom, a western ranchman.

Bessie Dean, a young maid. Philip M. East, Baby Oliver, a boy.

W. E. Jackson, a tramp. William Johnson, a tinsmith.

John Williams, a tinsmith.

Jim Tracy, a tinsmith.

John Neely, a tinsmith.

Eliza Marshall, a tinsmith's daughter.

Misses Sustie Marean, Alice Chaffee, and Alice Moreno.

Mrs. Maxwell Diamond in the role of Mrs. Moreau.

Audrey Marean.

Mrs. Marean, the talented actress, personally managed the presentation of the play and was absolutely devoid of amateurishness.

Miss Adele Chaffee is possessed of rare dramatic talents and her emotional acting as Jennie Goodwin would have been a credit to the profession.

Miss Sustie Marean as Cherry and Philip Ball as Rudolf Dean brought down the house by their realistic love-making so real.

Miss Aurelia Marean made a cute up-to-date figure and her dance was heartily applauded.

Miss Julia Moreno, as Mrs. Dean, was stately dignified and well suited to her part, which she acted with spirit.

The Mark Goodwin of Ernest Elliott, the Charlie Hilton of Calvin Goodman, the Uncle Bob of Clarence Tate, the Joe Black of Willie Johnson, the Billy Oliver of Elwood de la Rosa were all splendidly acted.

The love scene was realistic and exciting.

Pleaseing specialties were presented between the acts by Misses Mary, Maud, Hilda, and Rosalie, who danced gracefully and well, and the songs and dancing of the Highland Fling by Miss Blanche McHugh so pleased the audience that she was repeatedly applauded.

As a rule Pensacolians do not patronize amateur performances very liberally, and the full house given the Pensacola Dramatic Club last night was quite a compliment to their ability as actors.

Mrs. Marean was also highly complimented upon the excellence of her play.

THE MODERN WAY.

Commanded itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches, and fevers without unpleasant after-effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, syrup of Figs. Made by The Mark Syrup Co.

Jack and the Beanstalk.

"Jack and the Beanstalk" is coming to the opera house next Monday night, and the audience will be highly delighted by both old and young. There never yet was an attraction which tamed this country, that has become so popular with all classes as "Jack." There is something in it to please everybody. It is a rare combination of all that is beautiful, scenerically, bewitching in its mechanical and electrical ingenuity and gorgeous costuming. It has more pretty girls than any other organization which has ever appeared here and the management have shown good taste in their selection of the feminine contingent, not only in the principals, but also in the chorister and ballets particularly in the great south of extravaganzas. The saying "If eyes were made for seeing, then beauty is its own excuse for being," is well illustrated by the scores of beautiful and well shaped girls who are seen in the choruses, ballets and marches in "Jack." They well deserve the title so unanimously accorded them as being a veritable beauty show. They are all young, as well as pretty, and know how to sing. In the company there are a few changes which have been made for the better.

Mr. Ford will accept the position of superintendent on the Plant system at Gainesville, Fla., made vacant by the appointment of Superintendent Denham as general superintendent to succeed Bradford Dunham.

It is not known who will succeed Mr. Ford as trainmaster of the Kansas City road, but the names of J. J. Connally, yardmaster in this city, and W. B. Leonard, a well known conductor on the line, are mentioned in this connection.

FIVE PALS OF WEATHER.

The centre of high barometer pressure has drifted to the South Atlantic coast, accompanied by clear skies, freezing temperature, and heavy frosts southward to Pensacola and Jacksonville.

The barometer has fallen and it is generally warmer in the districts west of the Mississippi river.

Morning temperatures range from 2 degrees below zero at St. Paul and Marquette to 54 degrees at Key West.

It will grow warmer with increasing cloudiness in this vicinity tonight, and probably rain Saturday. M. J. Wright, Jr.
